

HAMILTON HADDEN RETIREMENT

Hamilton Hadden, III, Managing Director, retired on July 31, 2019 after 18 years with GIA. During his time at GIA, Hamilton provided invaluable analysis and insights as a key member of the investment team, and thoughtful counsel as a member of the Firm's Board of Managers. He was the global investment grade sector specialist with coverage responsibilities for basic industry, energy, transportation, utilities and insurance.

Before joining Global Investment Advisors in 2001, Hamilton was a senior credit analyst and risk manager at J.P. Morgan Investment Management covering investment grade and high yield utilities, energy and transportation industries. Previously, Hamilton had been a client relationship manager and a specialist portfolio manager for corporate private placements in the fixed income group at JPMIM. Before joining JPMIM in 1989, he held numerous positions at J.P. Morgan Securities and at Morgan Guaranty Trust Company in New York and in Tokyo.

Over the last 18 months, Hamilton's investment responsibilities were apportioned amongst Albert Tseng, Aswini Krishnan and Miguel Escobar. We will miss Hamilton's keen observations, clever sense of humor, and loyal camaraderie. We wish him all the best in retirement.
